

The coat of arms of the Republic of Armenia features two golden lions standing back-to-back on a base. The shield is divided vertically: the left half is green with two crossed golden swords, and the right half is blue with a golden oak leaf. Above the shield is a golden crown with red and white details. Below the shield, a golden ribbon contains the Latin motto "IMPERIVM ADAMIAE" and a smaller ribbon below it reads "Conservantes sapientiam et honorem".
